

TIDINGS OF ZION

Iyar/Sivan 5773

MT. ZION CONGREGATION, Sioux Falls, South Dakota

May 2014

Shavuot begins June 3, 2014

(from www.myjewishlearning.com)

Since the counting of this period (sefirat ha-omer) begins on the second evening of Pesach, Shavuot takes place exactly 50 days after the (first) seder. Hence, following the Greek word for “fifty,” Shavuot is also referred to sometimes as Pentecost. Although its origins are to be found in an ancient grain harvest festival, Shavuot has been identified since biblical times with the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai.

History

Shavuot combines two major religious observances. First is the grain harvest of the early summer. Second is the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai seven weeks after the exodus from Egypt. The first determines the ritual for the holiday, which was one of the three pilgrimage festivals of ancient Israel, when Israelite males were commanded to appear before God in Jerusalem, bringing offerings of the first fruits of their harvest. The second determines the significance of the holiday for Judaism, tying it in with the seminal event of Jewish religious memory, namely the entering into a covenant between God and Israel, exemplified by Israel’s assumption of Divine law.

At Home

Since Shavuot is an ancient pilgrimage holiday, it is not surprising that its ritual focuses on the community. Nonetheless, there are a number of customs associated with personal practice. Chief among them is the eating of dairy products on Shavuot. Although the reasons for this custom are not completely clear, it has become traditional to eat milk and cheese products as part of the celebration of Shavuot.

In the Community

Much of the observance of the holiday centers on the synagogue and its rituals. The special readings for the holiday include medieval poems (piyyutim) and the Book from the Congregation President...

Mt Zion Needs YOU!

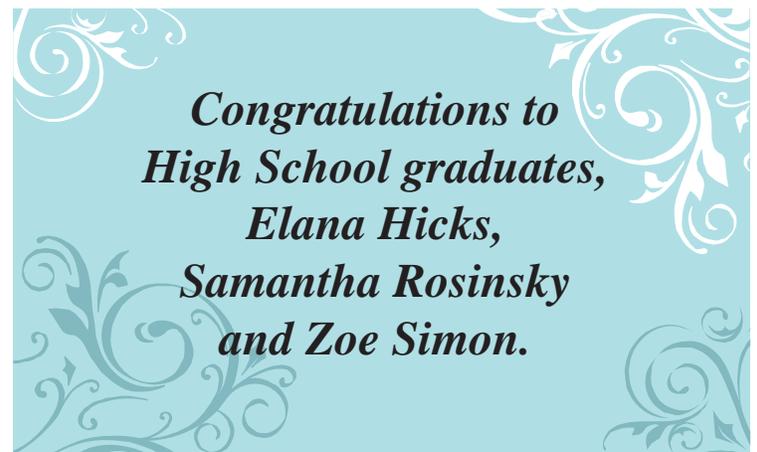

As we all know, our congregation is small.. Your Temple officers and Board members are working hard to keep our services and activities moving and improving. The fact of the matter is that often maintaining such a level is quite challenging. We need

YOU! Yes, I understand that many of us have committed our time and personal effort to sustaining our Jewish life here in Sioux Falls.

Unlike living in a big city, where it’s easy to be Jewish (several Temples to choose from, large community activities and services, ease of obtaining ritual foods when needed, etc.), here in Sioux Falls, one needs to be pro-active in order to maintain one’s Jewish beliefs and traditions.

So, what I ask is that each of you consider contributing a small amount of your time to assist with some Temple activity; for example, a family dinner, volunteer to help host an oneg; say yes when asked to help out on a committee, make suggestions for changing/improving services, etc. Our Temple, in a sense, is also our Jewish community center. We need everyone in our small Jewish community to contribute...even just a little...of their time to keep us going strong. I welcome all concerns/comments/suggestions.

*All the best,
Bernice*

of Ruth. A number of reasons are given for the inclusion of the latter. Among them are that the book takes place at the time of the barley harvest, that Ruth's assumption of Naomi's religion reflects the Israelites' acceptance of the Torah at Sinai, and that King David, who is alleged to have died at this time of year according to rabbinic tradition, is mentioned at the end of Ruth. Another tradition is to participate in a Tikkun Leil Shavuot, an all-night study session marking the holiday. And finally, Shavuot is one of the holidays on which both Hallel, the Psalms of Praise, is recited and Yizkor, the memorial service, is observed.

Themes and Theology

By associating an ancient holiday of the grain harvest with the exodus from Egypt, Jewish tradition has imbued Shavuot with religious significance derived from the foundational event in Jewish historical consciousness. In the specific case of Shavuot, this takes the form of the entering into a covenant or formal agreement between God and Israel at Mount Sinai. This is a joyous time, since it is the moment at which God and Israel entered into a figurative marriage with each other, the hopeful springtime of their relationship.

Dairy Foods

Why is it customary to eat dairy foods on Shavuot? Some derive the practice directly from scripture, saying we eat dairy to symbolize the "land flowing with milk and honey" promised to the Israelites, or that "milk and honey are under your tongue" (Song of Songs 4:11). Try this custom out this year—Shavuot begins at sunset on June 3 and ends on the evening of June 5.

BLINTZES

Blintzes are of Hungarian origin. Pancakes of every kind with various fillings, called "palacsinta," are common in Hungary. This one was adopted as a specialty of Shavuot, when it is customary to eat dairy dishes. It is a magnificent sweet and one of my favorites.

Ingredients

For the Pancakes:

- 1 cup flour
- 1 1/4 cups milk
- 2/3 cup water
- 1 egg
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 Tablespoon oil plus more for greasing the pan

For the Filling:

- 3 egg yolks
- A few drops of vanilla extract (optional)
- 3/4 cup currants or raisins soaked in a little rum for 1/2 hour (optional)
- 2-3 Tablespoons melted unsalted butter
- Confectioners' sugar to sprinkle on (optional)
- 1 lb curd cheese
- 1/2 lb cream cheese
- 1/2 cup or more sugar, to taste
- zest of 1 and 1/2 lemons
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon to sprinkle on (optional)
- Sour cream to pass around
